COLLEGE FRENCH CLASS INVITED TO "FRANCOPHONE" DAY AT S.U.N.Y. ALBANY

Ms. Scerbo's College French class was selected to participate in Francophone Day, on March 9, at S.U.N.Y. Albany, hosted by U. at Albany's University in the High School Liaisons. SHS College French students joined in the worldwide celebration, in honor of French speaking countries. The day focused on activities geared toward communicating in French and learning about aspects of francophone cultures. One of the highlights of this special day was a visit from a folk music group from Québec who taught folk dancing (which originated in France!) to our students. Emma McAnaw and Katherine Parks presented their delicious Napoléon pastry for consideration in the French Dessert Contest. Students also interviewed French, Haitian and Togolais natives. Participating College French students were Christine Bertels, Rebecca Brenner, Jonathan Groton, Conner Jones, Jenna Koroly, Christopher Lucaj, Emma McAnaw, Kaitlyn Nealon, Katherine Parks, Denise Persampieri and Kelly Tatera. Félicitations!
