

St. Rosalie Scholars 2010

We would like to congratulate the following students who received high school scholarships for the upcoming school year. We are very proud of their hard work and accomplishments. Congratulations!

Two of our 7th grade students Scott Vedros (left) and Austin Jackson (right) will be attending Archbishop Shaw High School and have been awarded the St. Dominic Savio Top Eighth Grade Scholarship in the amount of $3,150.00 each. This scholarship was awarded to Scott and Austin because they are our co-top academic seventh grade students currently at St. Rosalie School.

Genevieve Brillli will be attending Cabrini High School and has been awarded an Academic Scholarship in the amount of $1,000.00 for the upcoming school year. Provided that Genny maintains a 3.5 academic average while at Cabrini, this scholarship will continue for four years, totaling $4,000.0 for her scholarship. Genevieve received this scholarship because of her outstanding academic record and high school placement

Nicola Brillli will be attending Brother Martin High School and has been awarded an academic scholarship in the amount of $4,000.00 over a four year period. He was chosen as a recipient of this scholarship because of his prior outstanding academic performance. This scholarship is awarded to only a select number of students entering Brother Martin.

Thomas Bachot will be attending Brother Martin High School and has been awarded an academic scholarship in the amount of $3,000.00 over a four year period. He was chosen as a recipient of this scholarship because of his prior outstanding academic performance. This scholarship is awarded to only a select number of students entering Brother Martin.
