

QUESTIONS & ANSWERS REGARDING THE 2015/2106 EARLY RELEASE SCHEDULE

From: Williams Elementary

Q: What is the purpose of Early Release Wednesdays?

A. Early release Wednesdays will provide important opportunities for teachers to engage in professional learning along with collaborative and individual planning. This time is valuable, as it will support school and district efforts to continuously improve teaching and learning for all children.

Q: When will early release Wednesdays begin?

A. Wednesday, August 19, which is the second week of school. They will continue every week until school dismisses in May.

Q: How will the start and release times be affected by this change?

A. The school day start and dismissal times will remain consistent with the 2014-2015 Early Release Days. Williams Elementary will begin at 8:00 am and release at 1:15 pm.

Q: What arrangements for School-Aged Child Care will be made to accommodate Early Release Wednesdays?

A. Staffing hours for School-Aged Child Care will be adjusted to accommodate the increased need for elementary school supervision at the close of the student day. A special rate for the 40 early release days only will be made available. The price for the Wednesday only will be released prior to the beginning of school start.
