

Calhoun County Schools

TITLE II

Preparing, Training, and Recruiting High Quality Teachers and Principals. Funds from Title II are utilized to:

- Improve teacher and principal quality.
- Increase the number of highly qualified teachers in the classroom.
- Increase the number of highly qualified principals in schools.
- Assist school districts and schools to increase student achievement.
- Provide activities based on scientific research.
- Provide activities aligned with the West Virginia Content Standards.
- Provide high quality professional development in all core subjects.
- Provide teachers instructional strategies to improve skills.
- Funds can be used to recruit and hire highly qualified teachers to reduce classroom sizes in K-3.

TITLE VI (Rural and Low Income Schools–RLIS Program)

Funds from Title VI are utilized to:

- Assist rural school districts to improve the quality of instruction and student academic achievement.
- Address goals for school improvement.
- Develop programs that add to regular classroom instruction.
- Provide teacher professional development.
- Enhance technology integration and increase technology equipment.