Debaters Compete in Three

The Seminole Ridge Hawk debate team recently managed to be in three places at once: the Palm Beach County Forensics League tournament at Wellington High School, the Crestian Classic invitational tournament in Boca Raton, and the Crestian Classic invitational Congressional tournament in Fort Lauderdale.

At the PBCFL meet, Giana Abrams placed second in dramatic performance, Nathaniel Core placed fourth in extemporaneous speaking, and the duo of Herman Castro and Taylor Godfrey placed fifth in public forum debate.

At the Boca Crestian Classic, Robert Botkin and Cash Gallo placed in the top 16 of more than 100 teams.

At the Lauderdale Crestian Classic, Wayne Selogy made it to 'Super-Congress,' securing his spot as one of the top Congressional speakers in the nation. Congratulations, debaters!
