8th Annual LOJH Science Exhibition & Spaghetti Dinner

Thursday, February 16th, 2012

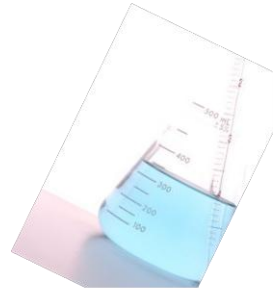

5:30-7:30pm

@ LOJH

Live Performances
by LOJH Students

Please join us for an evening filled with fabulous food and exciting entertainment. The old spaghetti factory will be providing a pasta dinner, including salad, bread and dessert.

LOJH Student Science Exhibits

This is a great opportunity to come together as a community and see what is happening up at LOJH.

Donate your old iPad to LOJH technology department for our students. Your old iPad contribution will go towards providing portable iPad carts for all students to use. Bring it to the dinner and receive a free dinner for your entire family! (tax deductible donation receipts will be provided) Cash/Check donations will also be gladly accepted to help fund purchase of new iPads/smart boards
