

Wednesday, January 25

Interact members: There will be an interact meeting tomorrow, January 26 before school in the library. You do not have to check in to homeroom.

Baseball players: We will have a mandatory organizational meeting today, January 25th in the cafeteria during homeroom. Please check into homeroom before coming to the meeting.

Girl's Basketball is having a spirit night, tonight, January 25th from 4-8pm at California Tortilla. You have to say the keyword "HOOPS" for it to be credited to Rustin. The Girl's Basketball Senior night is Friday, January 27th against Unionville. So come out to support the girls!

Science Olympiad Team, There will be a team meeting starting at 7:25 in A109 tomorrow morning. Please bring your permission slips for both Tiger and Mentor competitions.

All member of Knights in Community Service, we will be having an important meeting Friday morning during homeroom. Please check into homeroom and meet us in the Cafeteria at 7:30 am to hear details of the upcoming fundraiser for the Leukemia Society. We will be competing with East and Henderson High School to see who can raise the most money for the Leukemia Society. The theme is "Making Leukemia Disappear".

And now your sports update.

Golden Knight teams in action last night included the boy's and girl's varsity basketball teams which took on Sun Valley High School. On Senior Night, the boy's team cruised to an easy 71-52 victory. There was a balanced scoring attack as Seniors Anthony Nash, Joe Sedullo and Will Esten all had strong games. Nash led the team with 14 points while Sedullo and Esten scored 12 points each as the team went to 6-2 in the conference and 8-7 overall.

The girl's team was also victorious over Sun Valley winning 50-27. Sophomore Adashia Franklyn tallied 17 points while Senior Mikayla Doane added 11 and Noelle Powell chipped in with 10. The girl's team is 6-2 in the conference and 10-6 overall.

In Rustin Sports tonight, the JV and wrestling teams travel to Unionville for a match and the boy's and girl's swimming teams take on cross-town rival East tonight at the West Chester YMCA.

In Philly sports, the Flyers were on the ice last night in their last game before the All-Star break and celebrated a 3-2 shootout win over the Florida Panthers. Also the 76ers will get back on the court tonight when they welcome the New Jersey Nets to the Wells Fargo Center.

And now the rest of your news.

Juniors and Seniors: The Army is visiting our school tomorrow, January 26. If you would like to attend the visit, please sign up in the guidance office.

There will be a pre-season meeting for Girls interested in participating in Track and Field this spring tomorrow, January 26, during homeroom in the cafeteria.

Come out and support the Swim and Dive team in their meet against West Chester East today, Jan.25 at the Y on Paoli Pike. Meet time is 7:30.

This meet is dedicated to Unite For HER, a breast cancer awareness organization. There will be food and raffles. So come support Rustin's Swim and Dive team as they raise money for breast cancer awareness and take down the West Chester East Vikings at the same time!

The Swim and Dive team will also be selling Unite For HER T-Shirts for $10 as well as baked goods before and after school in the main lobby. The sale will end Thursday January 26th so bring in your money!