College Representatives Visiting Marquette:
Lewis University Wednesday, March 7 @ lunch

The last Seminar class is this Friday the 24th

Today is cheese pizza for Ash Wednesday and every Friday during Lent. Tomorrow for lunch the menu offered will be 2 hot dogs, chips and a cookie for $4. No pasta

Our spring musical is in desperate need of a keyboard player!! This is not the person who plays the complete piano accompaniment for the show. That will be covered by our musical director Stephanie Sobecki. What we NEED is someone to play a lot of instrumental melody lines with different sound effects on the keyboard. Reading music is a must, coming to several rehearsals is a must, plus attending ALL performances (March 16, 17, 18, 22-day show-23, 24, and 25). This can be ANY age, as long as they can play!!! Please e-mail Mrs. Crane at acrane@marquette-hs.org as soon as possible if interested.

The Purdue University North Central "CASH for College" Weekend runs Saturday, Feb. 25 from 9 – 6 and Sunday, Feb. 26 from 9 – 3. The Westville campus will help anyone wanting to complete the FAFSA, the Federal Application for Student Aid. The FAFSA must be submitted by early March in order for a student. To be eligible for scholarships, grants, loans or work-study aid. For more information, visit www.pnc.edu or call 1-877-792-2012.

Charles Jensen, son of Mrs. Jensen, and his wife Elizabeth, a graduate of Marquette, have a 10 month old son who has undergone a bone marrow transplant at the Cincinnati Children's Hospital. Charles and Elizabeth presently are not working because they are both needed to care for their son, Timmy. They will be spending the next few months in Cincinnati until Timmy is discharged. The Marquette family would like to help. On next Monday, February 27, Marquette will be sponsoring a dress down day. Students can wear appropriate (no holes) jeans or sweats for the price of AT LEAST $3.00. All proceeds will go to the Jensen family.

Seniors, please let Mrs. Mark know when your acceptances arrive. Congratulations to
