

Friday, January 27

The Girl's Basketball Senior night is tonight, January 27 against Unionville. So come out to support the girls!

Empire Beauty will be visiting our school on Wednesday, February 1. Please sign up if you would like to attend the visit.

Baseball Pitchers and Catchers: Due to a change in gym space availability, we will be holding our first bullpen session on the turf on Tuesday January 31. If weather should prevent us from being on the turf that day an announcement will be made on the PM announcements.

Rustin Young Republicans is having a meeting after school on Tuesday January 31. We will be taking about what is an republican and upcoming events. You don't have to be a Republican to join.

For people who aren't able to not make it after school, we will hold a brief meeting during Homeroom Wed February 1.

And now your sports update.

Golden Knight teams in action last night included the boy's varsity wrestling team which took part in Round 1 of the District One Duals.

Rustin crushed Upper Moreland High School 49-16. Tyler Wood was strong for the Golden Knights as he pinned his opponent in 65 seconds. Corey Mcquiston, Evan Harkins, Steve Quinn, Ryan Gregg, Tommy DiSanti, Sean Steinmentz, Matt Lamberjack, Christos Mocharis and Thomas Hatzipavlidis all earned victories. Rustin is the only area team to advance to the quarter finals of the District One Dual meet.

Also last night, the Boys varsity basketball went on the road last night to take on Unionville. The team won, 39-29. It was an even scoring affair by the team as Ethan Ridgeway and Will Esten provided most of the points scored 7 points each.

Golden Knight Teams playing tonight are the Girls Varsity Indoor Track taking part at the Lehigh meet at Lehigh University, the Girls Varsity Basketball taking on Unionville at home at 7:30, and the boy's and girl's Varsity swim teams traveling to the Kennett YMCA for a meet against Kennett High School.

On Saturday, the Boys Varsity Indoor Track will take part in the Glen Mills meet at the Glen Mills School, and the Boys and Girls Varsity Basketball teams will take on Cross town Rival East at East.

In Philly sports, the Flyers are off for the All-Star Break. They won't be back on the ice until Tuesday when they welcome the Winnipeg Jets to the Wells Fargo Center.

The 76ers will get back on the court trying to get another win at home as they take on the Charlotte Bobcats.

On Sunday Night, Super Bowl Week kicks off with the Pro Bowl. Kickoff is scheduled for 7 P.M. at Aloha Stadium in Honolulu.

And now the rest of your news.

Rustin's Support Our Troops Club, Rustin's newest club, is starting to collect goods for the Able company on Monday. Please help support this great cause. Lists of items you can bring are on the scrolling announcements.

So by now you have probably seen fliers for a Super Smash Brothers Brawl Tournament Friday, February 3. This is a fundraiser for Science Olympiad and costs $5 to enter. There will be food and drinks available to be purchased as well. Registration will continue to occur next to the main stairwell before and during homeroom as well as after school until Thursday February 2. Prize value will be dependent upon the number of entrants.
