Our students, teachers and staff make a difference every day in our school community. Today we want to acknowledge them and thank them for making this community rich, welcoming and a wonderful place to be.*

Students will be treated to snacks and an age-appropriate video in the afternoon supervised by parent volunteers, thank you!

Teachers will be treated to lunch together in the cafeteria, a shared meal time that is not possible during the schedule of a regular school day.

Thank you for helping to make our school the cheerful, Christian place where we love to work and play!
