Choose one of the following assignments:

1. Graphic Novel: Write and illustrate a 6-8 page graphic novel of book read. Must be fully illustrated and have at least one direct quote per page. Pages need to be 5X8 (printer paper folded in half) or larger.
Required:
  - 6-8 illustrated (in color) pages (including the cover page), 5X8 or larger
  - Cover page: title, scene, name, period
  - One direct quote per page, or 6-8 quotes
2. Poster Project: Make a large (poster-size board) poster that develops 5 themes. Each theme must have a quotation that fits the theme and an accompanying hand-drawn illustration or printed images. Explanations of drawings/quotes must be either typed up and pasted under each theme or submitted separately with one paragraph per theme (five total).
Required:
  - Poster-sized board; title, name, and period
  - 5 themes that include a hand-drawn illustration and a quote
  - 1 paragraph summary explaining each theme, or 5 total

3. Journal: Write a 5-page journal as one of the characters. Make sure you include references to the events in the book and use at least two direct quotes from the book per page.

Required:

- 5 pages
- Book references
- 2 quotes per page, or 10 total
- Cover page with title, name, and period

4. Thematic PowerPoint/Prezi: With a minimum of 15 slides, explore and develop the themes of the book using quotes and graphics.

Required:

- 15 slides (including the title slide)
- 10 slides minimum with text
- 5 images and 5 quotes
- Title slide with name and period

5. Formal Book Report: The report must include a cover sheet that lists the title of the book, student's name, grade and date. The report must be written in paragraph form, and be a minimum of two pages typed (double-spaced/size 12 font). The report must include the following information: title, author, characters, setting, conflict, climax and summary.
